

Transferability of Credit Disclosure

Credits earned at Queen City College may not transfer to another educational institution. Credits earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by Queen City College. You should obtain confirmation that Queen City College will accept any credits you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer credits earned at Queen City College to determine if such institutions will accept credits earned at Queen City College prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement. The ability to transfer credits from Queen City College to another educational institution may be very limited. Your credits may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at Queen City College if you enroll in another educational institution. You should never assume that credits will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are advised to make certain that you know the transfer of credit policy of Queen City College and any other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the credits earned at Queen City College before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement.

The Transferability of Credits Disclosure is pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. Section 49-7-144 (2008)
